Congratulations to our 200,000th WebRanger!

WebRanger "Lacrosse3" recently became the 200,000th person to sign up for an account on the WebRangers website.

We've ordered new desks, chairs, posters and bookshelves. Now you'll be able to make lots of changes so your new ranger station will look just the way you want. You can also collect trophies for completing all of the activities in a category.

Your work has been saved from your old ranger station, except for any of the "Special" activities that you have done.

Now there are now over 200,000 registered WebRangers; more than 9,800 have earned WebRangers patches by completing all of the required activities.
